

ADMINISTRATIVE CODE OF 1987

Executive Order No. 292

The National Meat Inspection Commission shall conduct actual ante-mortem inspection on all animals presented for slaughter and post-mortem inspection on all animals presented for slaughter and post-mortem inspection on all carcasses intended for human consumption in all abattoirs in the country; render technical assistance in the construction of meat establishments (abattoir, dressing plant, processing plant and meat markets) particularly on the selection of sites, and plant design preparation, equipment design and test runs, exercise overall supervision and control of management and operation of all abattoirs, dressing plants, meat processing plants and meat markets.